txt ; Paperback book. Dawah is the process of inviting people to Islam by advocating the teachings of Islam to them in order to achieve the purpose of winning their hearts to Islam. The Messenger (SAAS) of Allah (SMAS) said, "I have been sent to Dawah(A) for the people's welfare," This saying indicates that Dawah is an obligatory duty and therefore we need to improve ourselves as dawah-agents. The duty of Dawah is established in the Qur'an, for example: 3:64 So call to the way of your Lord (and give good news to His servants) 4:63 Fight in the Way of Allah (i.e. in Jihad in Allah's Cause) with those who fight against you, but do not aggress. God does not like the aggressors. 2:285 Behold! their prophet, he said: "Our Lord! enlarge my abode in the East and in the West so that they may witness it. 4:73-74 And as for the ones who disbelieve and deny Our Signs, they shall be the dwellers of the fire, abiding therein." 2:191 And fight in the Way of Allah those who fight you, but transgress not the limits. Surely, Allah loves those who are upright. 3:145 And they ask you (O Muhammad) concerning fighting in the Way of God. Say: Fighting is sin; but whoever is forced, then God is indeed Merciful to him. 3:151 Then, as for those who are hypocrites, they shall be Companions of the Fire and the Abode of Torment. The Prophet (PBUH) also said that the Day of Resurrection will be the time of the Fuqara (i.e. people who call people to Islam for the first time) and the Faqara (i.e. people who call people to Islam as a way of life).
